MARKET ANALYSIS

Bravo delta protection services has been formed by experienced veterans who know the ins and outs of the protection business. One of the biggest problems within the industry is the hiring of unqualified personnel who carry high caliber weaponry. Although gun and security laws are highly regulated. However on the deeper levels unlawful means are used in protection services. A contributing factor to this problem is the high rise in “murder for hire” incidents resulting in individuals opting to employ unqualified personnel at cheaper rates. One of the aims of Bravo delta is to try push for more people to be enrolled in formal training courses. Enroll more personnel into private investigator courses in order to crack down the “murder for hire” pandemic. We want to work with all relevant stakeholders to ensure that this is happening and make South Africa once again to be a great country.

Another issue than is problematic in our country that has sharply risen is the “protection fee” racketeering scheme. Where businesses and individuals are targeted with extortion tactics. Bravo Delta protection services is determined to work together with all government as well as private sector bodies to ensure these activities are put to an end. The below illustration shows the Eastern Cape leading in terms of the latest crime statistics in terms of murder.

OTHER SERVICES

The company also offers services in various sectors of industry like public infrastructure, public open spaces and community cleaning projects as well as the private sectors. The opening of this department was inspired by the state our country is in. The state of our infrastructure and buildings is not very good with many of these facilities not being maintained. Bravo DELTA entered into this market because of the high demand for competent personnel who oversee these type of services. We have a dedicated team who oversee this department on a full time basis.
